

Bay County Division on Aging and County Executive Tom Hickner present
Local White House Conference on Aging Community Forum

Friday, October 28, 2005

9:45 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Bay County Community Center
800 J. F. Kennedy Drive
Bay City, MI 48706

What: This fall, there will be a White House Conference on Aging in Washington, D.C. Delegates from across the country will develop a public policy agenda for the next ten years.

Who: Bay County Executive Tom Hickner, co-sponsor for this program, will be one of the speakers. Local delegate to the White House Conference on Aging, Lori Offenbecher, an employee of the Human Development Commission in Caro, will be the other guest speaker. Lori has been a supervisor of In-Home Senior Service programs for many years and was selected by Congressman Dale Kildee to represent his district.

Local Input: This community forum will give senior residents of Bay County and advocates for the elderly an opportunity to review the report that has been prepared by the State of Michigan in preparation for the upcoming White House Conference on Aging. We will be discussing local priorities in the areas of Caregiving, Economics, Community, and Health. A complete copy of the report is available on-line at www.miseniors.net.
